

Conference on Reinterpreting the Cold War in Asia
University of California, Santa Barbara
Center for Cold War Studies
30-31 March 2005
McCune Conference Room, 6th Floor HSSB

Wednesday, 30 March

- 9:00-11:30 Great Power Objectives in the Early Cold War
Toshi Hasegawa, Chair
Ilya Gaiduk, "The Second Front of the Soviet Cold War: Asia in the System of Moscow's Foreign Policy Priorities, 1945-1956"
Takahiko Tanaka, "Struggles for Autonomy: Japan and the Cold War in 1945-56"
Christian Ostermann, Discussant
- 11:30-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-2:30 The Cold War in China
Fredrik Logevall, Chair
Chen Jian, "Transforming the Cold War: Implications of China's Early Cold War Experience" Odd Arne Westad, "Struggles for Modernity: the Golden Years of the Sino-Soviet Alliance, 1945-1956"
Toshi Hasegawa, Discussant
- 2:45-4:15 Decolonization and Superpower Relations
Toshi Hasegawa, Chair
Fredrik Logevall, "The Only True Substitute for Empire: Rethinking
 the US Policy in Southeast Asia after World War II"
Odd Arne Westad, Discussant
James Hershberg, Discussant

Evening dinner reception to be held at Professor Hasegawa's house on 30 March following the last panel.

Thursday, 31 March

- 9:00-11:30 The Conflict in Korea
Fredrik Logevall, Chair
Nobuo Shimotomai, "Pyongyang in 1956"
Steven H. Lee, "The United States, Korea, and the Cold War in Asia, 1945-1954"
Kathryn Weathersby, "The Soviet Union, Korea, and the Cold War in Asia"
Chen Jian, Discussant
Ilya Gaiduk, Discussant
- 11:30-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-2:30 Roundtable on historiography and archives and a discussion of next year's agenda.

*This conference is sponsored by an IGCC Faculty Research Grant and the UCSB IHC.