

THE 1968 STUDENT MASSACRE IN MEXICO CITY

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Polytechnic "Brigadistas" in the 1968 Student Movement

In 1968, hundreds of students were killed by the Mexican military and police for organizing student protests against government repression. On the fiftieth anniversary of this massacre, activists/survivors Gabriel Vega, Felipe Galván, and Jesús Gutiérrez will reflect on the meaning of student activism, memory, and social justice in times of repression.

Wednesday, April 25th, 12 pm
MCC Theater

Sponsors: History Department, The Chicano Studies Institute, English Department, Department of Asian American Studies, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Latin American and Iberian Studies, Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor, and the Associate Vice Chancellor for Diversity and Equity.