

HISTORY BEYOND THE ACADEMY: A CONVERSATION

Come and join us for a panel discussion with recent graduates from UCSB's Department of History to learn about their experiences working as historians beyond the Academy. Learn about work in academic administration, the non-profit sector and how to research and produce podcasts. The discussion will be moderated by Addie Jensen and Mattie Webb. All are welcome!

Mariel Aquino

Mariel Aquino is a research Fellow for Community Initiatives at the National Humanities Alliance, a Washington, DC based nonprofit that advocates for federal funding for humanities programs.

Doug Genens

Doug Genens is a historian and case writer at the Tobin Project. He received his PhD from UCSB in 2020 and currently lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Caitlin Rathe

Caitlin Rathe completed her PhD in 2019 and has worked in university administration and as a researcher/producer on historical podcasts.

Stephanie Seketa

Stephanie Seketa is the Director of Academic Affairs at Marist College in Poughkeepsie, New York. She received her PhD from UCSB.

Apr. 24 4PM

*Co-hosted by the History
Department and the Cold War Working Group*

Join us on Zoom at:

<https://ucsb.zoom.us/j/6855143149>

