

HISTORY DEPARTMENT SENIOR HONORS RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

FRIDAY 19 MAY 2017

HSSB 4020 - REFRESHMENTS SERVED

PANEL ONE: 9 - 10:30 AM WORLD WAR II AND THE COLD WAR

- Emily Leifer, "Soldiers without Guns: Housewives and Club Women on the Home Front in World War II." Comment by Professor Nelson Lichtenstein
- Steven Tragarz, "Soviet Women and World War II: Experiences of Warrior Women, Soviet Gender Policy, and Involvement in the Male Field of War." Comment by Professor Elena Aronova
- Izeah Garcia, "Sino-American Normalization: The National Security Advisor's Quest, 1976-1978." Comment by Professor Salim Yaqub

PANEL TWO: 10:45 AM - 12:15 PM CULTURE, GENDER, AND ARCHIVES

- Holly Nelson, "Reshaping American Femininity: Reinforcement and Challenges to Nineteenth-Century Gender Ideology by the 1876 Centennial and 1893 Columbian Expositions Women's Committees." Comment by Professor Erika Rappaport
- Katie Correia, "Homeward Bound: British Captivity and Diplomacy in Algiers, 1625-1660." Comment by Professor Sears McGee
- Wyatt Young, "In the Attics of Our Lives: How the Grateful Dead and Deadheads Built an Archive." Comment by Professor Juan Cobo-Betancourt

PANEL THREE: 1:30 - 3 PM EDUCATION AND LITERARY CULTURE

- David Samuels, "War of the Words: The Spanish Inquisition and Lazarillo de Tormes." Comment by Professor Leo Cabranes-Grant, Department of Spanish and Portuguese
- Victoria Gray, "Beyond the Classroom: How the Internet Is Trying to Save Education." Comment by Professor Harold Marcuse
- Lauren Cain, "Seeds of Sexual Assault: In loco parentis at the University of California, Santa Barbara, 1944-1974." Comment by Professor Patricia Cohen, emerita

PANEL FOUR: 3:15 - 4:45 PM WAR AND FOREIGN POLICY

- Andy Chen, "Worship and War: Sacred Space in Byzantine Military Religion." Comment by Professor John Lee
- Katie Sebas, "Re-Examining the Clinton Administration's Response to the Rwandan Genocide." Comment by Professor Stephan Miescher
- Andrew Garcia, "The United States' Alternative Motive of the 1916-1917 Punitive Mexican Expedition: The True Pursuit of Francisco "Pancho" Villa or U.S. Military Preparation to Enter and be Victorious in World War I?" Comment by Research Professor Jack Talbott