Labor Studies Minor

View the Labor Studies Minor Requirements Sheet HERE
Check out the History Department Website HERE

1.) PREPARATION: You must take either History 2C, 4C, or 17C, and one course from the listed outside disciplines.

2.) UPPER-DIVISION:
- Area A: You must take either History 167CB, 174B, or 174C (or 167CA, not currently listed on the minor sheet). These courses are often only offered once or twice per year, so please do not wait until your final quarters to complete them. Any extra courses taken in this area may be applied to Area C.
- Area B: You must take History 167Q. This course is an internship seminar course that is only offered once per year, either in the winter or spring quarter. This course will next be offered in Winter 2021. This course is intended to be taken after most other courses for the minor are completed, in the junior or senior year. History and History of Public Policy majors may not use this course towards their major requirements.
- Area C: You must take four elective courses from the list provided, with courses in at least two different departments. History and History of Public Policy majors may not use history courses to fulfil this area.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- ALL courses for the minor must be taken for a letter grade
- At least 12 of your upper division minor units must be taken in-residence at UCSB (NOT through EAP or at another university)
- Lower division history courses from community college can count towards this minor!
- You must earn at least a 2.0 in all of the upper division minor courses by the time of graduation.
- No more than 5 upper-division units may overlap between this minor and the upper division portion of your major or other minors. All substitutions outside the history department must be approved by the history faculty/advisor. If you would like to substitute a course for this minor, please submit it through our online petition form (syllabus is required for petitioning).

Department of History university of california, santa barbara