

QUEEN RADEGUND

and the MONARCHY IN MEDIEVAL EUROPE

FREE LECTURE - 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM | Saturday, February 8, 2020

Come hear Anna Rudolph's (UCSB History Department PhD cand.) presentation on Queen Radegund (520AD - 587AD) - a royal sainted lady of Thuringia. Radegund was a princess and a war captive who became an unwilling Queen and one of the most beloved Saints of France. Radegund, an extreme ascetic, was widely believed to have the gift of healing. Venerated for centuries, she has given us insights into the changing conventions of elite and royal women. Radegund is the Patron Saint of many churches in France and England, one Priory dedicated to her memory being converted into the world-renowned Jesus College, near Cambridge.

Join us for an afternoon of miracles, warfare and Game-of-Thrones style intrigue as we illuminate the life of one of humanity's most remarkable women. Original Medieval Times manuscripts will be on display.
