

HELMETS OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR

BATTLE, TECHNOLOGY, AND CULTURE

On exhibit at UCSB Library, Mountain Gallery (1st Floor)

The widespread use of steel protective helmets was among the major military and cultural changes wrought by the First World War (1914-1918).

This exhibition showcases original helmets and includes photographs and other artifacts from the conflict.

Film screening: Wooden Crosses
(France, 1932)

Wednesday, November 16, 6pm
UCSB Library Instruction & Training Room
1312 (1st Floor, Mountain Side)

Introduction by John W.I. Lee
(UCSB History)

Light refreshments will be served.
Co-sponsored by UCSB Library and the UCSB Department of History

UC SANTA BARBARA
LIBRARY

www.library.ucsb.edu/exhibitions

